York County News.

Yorkville Enquirer, Friday.

Mr. J. L. Sanders has been appointed a special constable for York county, and will do what he can to put a stop to the tiger business. During his services as policeman, Mr. Sanders did a lot of good work in running down tigers in and around Yorkville.

Comptroller Jones was here last Saturday to make his annual settlement with the county auditor, county treasurer, county supervisor, county superintendent of education and foreman of the grand jury. The settlement was quite satisfactory to all concerned.

The minutes of the thirty-ninth annual session of the York Baptist association held with the Oak Grove church in Mecklenburg county, on Sept. 10, 11 and 12, have been printed and are now ready for distribution.

Different farmers' unions recently organized in this county, are reported to be growing nicely. Organizer Chandler is still at work, and is in considerable demand in different parts of the county.

Invitations have been issued to the marriage of Miss Barnett Wylie Miller to Mr. John Harvey Spencer. The bride-to-be is a daughter of Mr. W. J. Miller, of Newport, and the groom is a son of Mr. J. T. Spencer of Roddey. The ceremony is to take place on Wednesday, October 2.

Dr. Miles Walker of Yorkville, has been appointed by the governor to serve as one of South Carolina's two representatives at the sixteenth annual convention of the military surgeons of the United States to be held at Jamestown on October 15 to 18. Dr. Walker will attend if he possibly can.

A phone message from Clover brings information that Capt. W. B. Smith has suffered a stroke of paralysis on his right side. The captain is able to recognize his friends; but is not able to speak. Dr. Pressley, it is understood, considers the situation not altogether hopeless. Captain Smith's many friends throughout the county will sincerely hope for his recovery.

Funeral of Mrs. Rodgers.

The funeral service of Mrs. Nannie Rodgers, wife of Mr. R. E. Rodgers, who died Wednesday morning of last week, took place from the home in Sprattville Thursday morning at 11 o'clock. Dr. J. H. Thornwell conducted the service, after which the interment was made in the town cemetery.

Mrs. Rodgers, before marriage was Miss Nannie Culp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Culp, of Sprattville. She was about 35 years of age. Mrs. Rodgers had been in bad health for several months, and for several days preceding her death was desperately ill and therefore her death was not unexpected. She is survived by her husband, mother and father and several brothers and sisters.

Mrs. Rodgers was a consistent member of the Methodist church, a true Christian woman, a devoted wife and a good neighbor. Her death has caused deep sorrow among her many friends.

"It is now a straight fight between the producer and the speculator. Here are the elements: an unquestioned short crop, an unquestioned high price of cotton goods. Two months ago the raw material was near 14 cents. The depression at present is therefore due solely to the efforts of the speculative element, and the fight can be won if the cotton producers will stand together. I believe they are going to win."—E. D. Smith, pres. S. C. cotton association.

The NEW "ADONIS."

This is the name of our newest and smartest Suit-model, a shape designed especially for young men who know what style is and who want the very latest.

An especially attractive model for this season. The low cut front gives a chance for your white or fancy vest to show itself; the lines and general shape—line is very graceful and the whole conception is full of life and snap.
